The Star

Don't Miss It: Khazanah scholarships

Sunday, 02 Jun 2024

Khazanah scholarships
Application deadline: June 5

> Sijil Pelajaran Malaysia (SPM) graduates are invited to apply for the Khazanah scholarship programme by Yayasan Khazanah (YK).

> YK, a strategic partner of Yayasan Hasanah, has been entrusted with nurturing and supporting extraordinary individuals with the potential to take on leadership roles in the country's top organisations, including government-linked companies. > The Khazanah scholarship programme not only offers funding for educational expenses, but also hones personal development, especially in leadership.

> The scholarships available are as follows:

> Khazanah Global Scholarship (A-Level Studies)

Supporting A-Level studies as preparation for undergraduate degrees across various fields at the world's top 50 universities (based on the QS World University Rankings).

> Khazanah Watan Scholarship (Foundation Studies)

Supporting foundation studies across various fields at selected local universities.

> Wakalah PayNet-Yayasan Khazanah Scholarship (Foundation Studies)

Supporting Malaysian Muslim B40 students (post-SPM/IGCSE) in their undergraduate studies (foundation and degree) in fields such as information technology, computer science, finance and other related courses at selected local universities.

> Applicants must possess strong leadership skills and actively participate in extracurricular, social or voluntary activities, alongside having a consistent and outstanding academic achievement record.

> In 2023, YK awarded 115 scholarships to extraordinary individuals in Malaysia, as well as 200 study grants to secondary school students. This brings the cumulative number of Khazanah scholarships awarded to 1,495 since 2006.

Details: www.yayasankhazanah.com.my